PROFILE SERIES | WINTER 2010

GENERAL PRACTICE BOUTIQUE

KAUFMAN, MILLER & SIVERTSEN, PC has the experience & background to handle a wide-range of legal problems for their clients. They recognize that each client has a unique need requiring a special legal answer, and keeping that client fully informed is a cornerstone of their philosophy. Attorneys Robert J. Kaufman, Craig D. Miller, John B. Sivertsen, Jordan B. Forman, Jason S. Adler, Jeremy Liebman, Vito Loiacono, Alex B. Kaufman & Ivan I. Mihailov emphasize that they are attorneys whom clients can rely on for their unique needs. Fostering a commitment to always provide personalized service & value, they endeavor to work closely with their clients and to provide sound & accurate advice and cost effective services.

The firm's general practice includes business & corporate, civil litigation, business litigation, franchising, personal injury, securities litigation, divorce & family law, fiduciary law & litigation, and employment law (including non-compete agreements & severance agreements). All partners & associates are licensed to appear in, and are fully familiar with, the state & federal courts in Georgia. Kaufman, Miller & Sivertsen is big enough to deliver, but small enough to care.
